

Cooperative

Any five or more people who for the purpose of conducting and carrying on a cooperative undertaking, business or industry desire to associate themselves together as a cooperative association with or without share capital shall sign in duplicate a memorandum of association and comply with the requirements of the Cooperative Associations Act, respecting registration and incorporation of associations.

For further information on Forms for Cooperatives, contact our office.