

Volunteer Fire Explorer Permission Form

This form is for minors 16 to 18 years old who want to be an active volunteer member of the Yukon Fire Service. These members are called Fire Explorers.

A candidate must submit this document, signed by a parent/guardian, to the Fire Marshal's Office; complete a volunteer registration form at the fire department; and be accepted for training by the Fire Chief.

Fire Explorers will:

- Be supervised at all times
- Train only to the Yukon Fire Fighter Advanced Level
- Receive honoraria for training
- Be eligible to Stand-to (respond to fire calls) at the age of 17 if all training requirements are met

Fire Explorers won't:

- Be used in an immediately dangerous to life or health atmosphere or dangerous incident situation
- Drive a fire truck or apparatus
- Perform tasks for which they are not trained

EXPECTATIONS

A Fire Explorer will work to successfully complete First Aid Training and the Yukon Fire Fighter Basic and Advanced fire training programs. This can be completed during scheduled training sessions and drills on evenings or weekends. Attendance at scheduled training is required.
